College of Performing Arts Piano Lessons with Suzuki Sue

Children of all ages (3 years old and up)
Every child can learn the piano!

Sue Lorimier is new to Vero Beach after 25+ years teaching Suzuki piano in Boston, Massachusetts. She is excited to join the Gifford Youth Orchestra's College of Performing Arts working with children of all ages and abilities.

The Suzuki Method is based on the principle that all children possess unlimited ability. We believe that every child can learn music using a step-by-step approach similar to language learning.

When and Where: Thursdays at the Gifford Youth Achievement Center (GYAC) 5:30-7:30pm (scheduled in 30-minute blocks) lessons also available upon request on Tuesdays or Wednesdays at the Emerson Center
