

Member – Elle Shaw Berbick*Indian River County

Member: Registry Interim, the Boston based Higher Education Academic placement organization for college and university provosts and presidents. As University Academician and Administrator, Dr. Shaw-Berbick held three deanships at Kentucky State University, Frankfort, KY; The College of Saint Rose, Albany NY; and at Lynn University in Boca Raton, FL. She was also Director of Institutional Effectiveness and Ombudsman at American InterContinental University. She has led, directed, and provided oversight for over 200 faculty and university staff, managed over . Brings over 20 years of experience and expertise to organizations and projects promoting excellence, designing strategic planning across units, programs, and university projects; developing cutting edge curricula grounded in the liberal and performing arts. Passionate about the arts in all their forms, she is equally passionate about students at risk having choices and opportunities to engage in activities that can transform their lives, develop, and nourish their talents, and ensure their lived experiences are fully integrated as national and global citizens. Dr. Shaw-Berbick is a graduate of Howard University, holds post-doctoral certificates from Harvard University in Leadership and Management, and from Oxford University, UK, in identifying and building capacity for growth through intercultural methods of diversity and inclusivity. She lives with her husband on the Treasure Coast of Florida and has a millennial daughter who is a Washington D.C. attorney.