

Member – Jennifer Trapp*Boston, MA , Suffolk County

Suffolk County Resident; Indian River County Native. Jennifer recently joined TAKE YOUR SEAT – a board development and readiness equity accelerator --as Head of Client Services to broker and sustain relationships with sponsors, partners, boards, and investors, that lead to business growth and success through revenue generation. She brings with her over three decades of business and fundraising expertise from spearheading the strategy development and execution of numerous $2B+ campaigns within the education, healthcare, and art industries. Jennifer has led and coached high-performing teams to exceed philanthropic targets by at least 20% at 3 Harvard Medical School affiliates: Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, MGH Cancer Center, the Immune Disease Institute, and Northeastern University. She received a Bachelor of Science in Speech from Emerson College and a Master's in Communications Management from Simmons University. She is the proud mom of two Yorkshire terriers and doting aunt to many legions of younger Trapps.