Inspiration is the Key
By Rev. Dr. Crystal Bujol, November, 2017

Dr. Elaine Word and I were working on a grant application for one of the funders who supports the Gifford Youth Orchestra. We have never had an opportunity to simply copy an application submitted to one funder and send it to another organization. Each one requires new thought to answer their particular questions. This grant was no exception. They asked a question we had not encountered before, “Give us your 100 word pitch on what you are applying for and why our Foundation should support your mission.”

It was close to the deadline of when this application was due, so we did not have a lot of time to brainstorm about the answer. Dr. Word was sitting in the office at the time. The walls of the office are filled with photographs of students past and present. She looked up at the photographs on the west wall where pictures of the performing artist group in Las Vegas on a snowy day when they went there to perform with the Las Vegas Jazz Society. Just below, there hung photos commemorating performances at the Surf Resort, and Christ by the Sea, and Holy Cross. Looking down on Dr. Word was a photo of Suksesha Crosdale and Dr. Bonny from a visit to the VNA rest home, a time when Sukesha went there to play her new violin for Dr. Bonny. In another photo, Jamari was smiling with his face painted from one of our Valentine’s Day Thank-you Tea. And Jazz O’Neal was intensely playing the cello (that girl really could play that instrument)! Another photo was of Joan Haar showing Ariel how to hold the violin when she first began her studies.

Elaine sat with these photos, these images of children who had come to us in as long ago as 2003. She listened to their silent voices. She pondered what they were saying to her as she contemplated an answer to the question, “Give us your 100 word pitch on what you are applying for and why our Foundation should support your mission.”

Of course, we know that photographs can’t speak. Right? Then why do we also say, “One picture is worth 1000 words?” It is because we can see in the images things for which there are no words. There is a spiritual connection between pictures and thoughts. Spiritual, not religious. Of the spirit.

The word “inspiration,” comes from the root Inspirare, a compound term resulting from the Latin prefix in (inside, into) and the verb spirare (to breathe). Inspiration means to breathe into. The pictures breathed into Dr. Word. She was inspired. She wrote her answer, which today, is the way to explain, ‘Who we are, What we do and for Whom we do what we do.’

I am inspired by the amazing children who join our program. I am inspired by the commitment of their parents. I am inspired by our fabulous, hard working, incredibly loving staff. I am deeply inspired by the generous support of our donors and volunteers. I am forever inspired by the incredible dedication of the Gifford Youth Orchestra Board of Directors. People, places, and pictures have inspired others who are in our Gifford Youth Orchestra family. They, too have been “breathed into” by someone or something. Spirit to spirit.

I am inspired and blessed by the phenomenal dedication and organizational abilities of my fantastic Director of Programs. Iva Powell-Perry who has breathed new life into the Gifford Youth Orchestra Programs.

Joan Haar our music director recalls that she was inspired by the two music teachers she had in college. “They uplifted their students by their personal joy from music and just being with their students. They promoted their students. They were encouraging. Fun to be with them. This is what kind of teacher I have tried to be.”

There isn’t room in this program to talk about all the things Larrissa Thomas-Pelt has done for the GYO. Nevertheless, she is the chairperson of the annual printed program for our Annual Concert, who has been a GYO parent for over ten years, and a board member for six years. She has felt inspired to work very hard to insure the continuation of the GYO. I asked what inspired her. What breathed into her? She said, “I do what I do for the Gifford Youth Orchestra because I am a part of the community it serves. The orchestra has been nothing but a positive intricate part of my children's lives and experiences. I owe service to this great organization that continues to influence Gifford in a very positive way. I am inspired by the light that continues to shine from within the Gifford community because of this organization. I am inspired by the countless donors outside and within the community for the much-needed financial support. It’s amazing and unbelievable knowing the hearts of our supporters.”

Board Member, James Parks, has been an ardent supporter of the GYO for years. Like Larrissa, there is not room in this publication to tell you all of the projects, gifts, donations, food, and energy he has given. He has been inspired to support the GYO for the last nine years! Something about our children, their success, the staff, the results of our program have breathed into him. Spirit to Spirit. He wrote about what inspires him to stay connected to the GYO, “Yes, the GYO is a wonderful opportunity for a young person who may not have been graced with a silver spoon, or even a high quality plastic spoon. Though an education is available for all young people in this county, history has surely proven, graduating from high school does not mean you will be “educated”. GYO is opportunity! The students that are fortunate enough to have someone in, or outside their family, directing and giving them this opportunity are fortunate. With perseverance, they will leave high school with a talent. No need for idle dreams of professional baseball, football, basketball, hockey, soccer, tennis or other seemingly high profile opportunities. They leave with a talent!”

As you look at the pictures of our children in this program, listen to them on our web site, and read their stories online, perhaps you will be inspired to get involved; give your time; give your money; give your blessings and endorsements to promote and preserve the essence of what Dr. Elaine Word was inspired to write when she sat in the shadow of those students. What did she write?

The Gifford Youth Orchestra in a Nutshell

The Gifford Youth Orchestra changes lives. The GYO gives tools to at-risk children who face the prospect of remaining in a cycle of poverty. The GYO gives children a reason to hope and to dream. The GYO keeps children off the street and on the stage. The GYO spotlights children who are often characterized as being worthless, less than, and a threat to society. The GYO says to those children, “Yes, you matter — and yes you can!” The GYO uplifts an entire community. And, for all these reasons, we passionately believe that our theme is our inspiration to serve:

“More Violins ~ Less Violence ~ Better Tomorrows!”

CONGRATULATIONS LUKE!

Well, son, I'll tell you:
Life for me ain't been no crystal stair.
It's had tacks in it,
And splinters,
And boards torn up,
And places with no carpet on the floor --
Bare.
But all the time
I'se been a-climbin' on,
And reachin' landin's,
And turnin' corners,
And sometimes goin' in the dark
Where there ain't been no light.
So boy, don't you turn back.
Don't you set down on the steps
'Cause you finds it's kinder hard.
Don't you fall now --
For I'se still goin', honey,
I'se still climbin',
And life for me ain't been no crystal stair.

“Off the Street – On the Stage.”

IMPACT OF THE GIFFORD YOUTH ORCHESTRA
Using music as our initial teaching tool, we give students specialized training which, along with their home and spiritual training helps them make better choices as they grow. Participation in the Gifford Youth Orchestra (GYO) changes the paradigm of the students such that they have new skills that helps them rise above the expectations of uninformed adults and peers with limited knowledge of who our children really are. GYO children thereafter become more productive members of the community and identify college and career options that heretofore might not have been in their consciousness. At the onset of their entrance into a GYO class they begin to embody the theme, motto and slogan in the above mission message, especially when they play their instruments in their first performance!

BEYOND THE ORGANIZATION’S MISSION
The side-effects of our mission statement are greater than the mission! The children have fun. They prosper. Their grades improve. Their behavior improves. They focus more. They learn a new language (music), and become part of a new cultural group (musicians) and as a result ... these children uplift and empower other young people!

EFFECT OF MUSIC ON CHILDREN’S INTELLIGENCE
There is extensive research on the topic of music and children’s intelligence which proves that playing an instrument positively affects educational outcomes, especially as a result of playing and listening to classical music. Children who play a musical instrument are more likely to finish high school and go on to college. They perform better in math and science, and have an easier time learning languages. Music has also been shown to be transformational in creating cycles of success and effecting social change. 100% of the GYO High School Graduates are either enrolled in or have completed their college education!

LONG—RANGE PLAN
Our mission statement states that we offer string instruments as our major element of music education. We have a 13-year history of accomplishments and benefits to our students, but we have other dreams. We want to touch the lives of more children by expanding our Music Education Program for Gifford and Neighboring Communities by offering: a program for children from age 2-6; a program for young adults from age 18-30; and the GYO Community Choir for children age 7-18, beginning in January 2017 under the direction of Courtney Godwin!

Epilog: “I would teach children music, physics, and philosophy; but most importantly music, for the patterns in music and all the arts are the keys to learning” — Plato
